

James Tobias

Major Gifts Officer

James “Jamie” Tobias serves as a primary fundraiser securing gifts that enhance the institution’s ability to achieve its goals and accomplish its mission. Jamie previously served as a Director of Major Gifts at Piedmont Healthcare Foundation, as the Assistant Director of Development and Communications for L’Arche USA and at Emory University, serving in a variety development positions including Associate Director of Annual Giving. A native of South Carolina, he received his degree from Clemson University in 2000 and received his CFRE in 2015. Currently, he serves as the President-Elect of the Atlanta Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals.