

Len Al Haas, CFRE, is founder and president of Haas Consulting. Since 1988, he has provided fundraising, planning and technology consulting services for nonprofits ranging from social service and healthcare organizations to educational institutions and professional associations. An active community volunteer for three decades, Len Al co-founded and served as chairman of the board of directors of TECH CORPS Georgia. He also served on the board of directors of The Study Hall at Emmaus House and the board of trustees of St. Martin's Episcopal School. He is a past president of the Greater Atlanta Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals. He currently serves on the advisory boards of the Foundation Center–Atlanta and ToolBank USA and is a frequent conference presenter. He is a Certified Fund Raising Executive (CFRE).

Len Al began his career working in development and alumni affairs at Georgia State University, and later served as development director for Hillside Hospital. Prior to starting his own firm, he was a consultant with a large, Atlanta-based firm where he successfully managed a wide variety of annual and capital campaigns.

Len Al earned a BA in Economics from the University of Vermont and an MBA from Georgia State University. He also taught math and economics as a Peace Corps volunteer in West Africa.
